Galatians 5:13 (ESV)

Religious Liberty Corner

Lincoln Steed, editor of Liberty Magazine, stated, “yes, there’s too much religion in the world and far too little spirituality”. Charles Mills, audio-video producer and author, writes, “religion is simply a collection of individuals who interpret and follow a set of guidelines the same way. What we need is a good dose of spirituality injected into the hearts and minds of people everywhere. When you combine the moral compass of spirituality with the deep-hearted fervor of religion, the result can literally change the course of history for the better. Religious freedom is precious and worth fighting for, the same freedom must be shared with those who worship God, follow other faith, or simply look to themselves for all the answers. Only then, can religion become the spiritual force our world needs so desperately.
